No. D-31/12/04/2011-PR

Dated : 31.05.2011

NOTE

Kindly refer to this office letter dated 16.05.2011 (Copy enclosed) wherein a fresh and corrected poster relating to Project Panchdeep was sent. It was requested to display in all the offices of your region including hospitals and dispensaries. It was also requested therein to translate the posters in the local languages for dissemination of information among all the stakeholders.

The Director General while visiting one of the Branch Offices found that the said posters was either not available or were not displayed. This has been seriously viewed by the Director General. He has desired that this poster should be displayed immediately in every ESIC institution under your control and a compliance report sent by 03.06.2011. Failure to do so will reflect upon your performance.

This may be treated as MOST URGENT.
