1. INTRODUCTION

Employees' State Insurance Corporation is responsible for administering the E.S.I. Scheme which provides benefits to the workers (earning Rs. 10,000/- per month or below) and their family members in the exigencies of sickness, maternity, employment injury, disablement, death and unemployment

- * Started on 24 February 1952, the ESI scheme is the country's first multi-dimensional social security system for workers in the organized sector.
- * Covers a total beneficiary population of 4.69 crores today
- * Has the country's largest medical infrastructure facilities under its umbrella. The E.S.I. Scheme has 146 hospitals, 42 Hospital annexes, and 1397 dispensaries. The scheme boasts of 27727 beds, 9000 doctors of different levels and about 45000 para-medical staff.
- * Is the most affordable social security system with the lowest contribution rate for multiple health insurance benefits.
- * Takes care of the client and his/her dependants from day one of entering insurable employment
- * Is the only health insurance scheme that offers full medical care to workers and their dependants without any ceiling on individual expenditure?
- * Offers a special package of full medical care to retired/disabled insured persons for self and spouse for a nominal contribution of Rs. 120/- per annum
- * Offers economic protection through cash payments in the event of sickness, temporary/permanent disablement, maternity, death due to employment injury or occupational disease and unemployment. For proper administration of the scheme in general and the cash payments in particular, the E.S.I. Corporation has 51 regional/sub-regional/divisional offices and 795 branch offices/pay offices throughout the country.

2. Duration of Empanelment
