To,

E.S.I. Corporation,
Regional/Sub-Regional/Divisional Offices.

Sub: Medical Benefit to the Superannuated Insured Person and his/her spouse in accordance with the Rule 61 of the ESI (Central) Rules, 1950.

Sir,

A doubt was raised whether the spouse of the retired Insured Person, who is enjoying the medical benefit under Rule 61, should be eligible to receive Medical Benefit after the demise of the insured Person. The matter has been examined in consultation with legal advisor and it is clarified that the surviving spouse of the retired Insured person shall continue to receive the Medical Benefit under Rule 61 if he/she pays the contribution at the rate of Rs.10/- per month in lumpsum for one year at a time in advance. The contribution by the surviving spouse should be calculated from the date contribution paid by the retired person is exhausted.

This issues with the approval of Director General.

Yours faithfully,

(SATPAL SEHGAL) /sp
ASSTT. DIRECTOR
