Sub: - Introduction of qualifying conditions for availing super Speciality Medical treatment.

Sir/Madam,

Earlier, the standing committee of the corporation in its meeting held on 23.06.2003 had decided to introduce qualifying conditions for becoming eligible for super Speciality treatment accordingly, the insured persons and their family members (other than those Injured in accident) are entitled to medical care and/or reimbursement of expenditure including cost of supply of medicines thereto only if they were eligible for sickness benefit.

The corporation in its 151st meeting held on 10th December , 2010 has reviewed earlier decision of the Standing Committee of the Corporation and decided to introduce following condition for availing Super Speciality treatment :-

1. In the case of treatment of Insured Person, he/she should have been in insurable employment for a period of not less then 3 months and contributions in respect of him/her should have been paid/payable for not less then 39 days during this period.
2. In the case of Medical attendance and treatment of family members, the Insured Person should have been in insurable employment for a period of not less then 6 months and contributions in respect of him/her should have been paid or payable for not less than 78 days during this period.

As such, in supersession of this office instruction issued vide letter of even number dated 26.08.2003, you are requested to issue instructions to the units under your control who are responsible for delivery of the benefit to adhere to the above decision of the Corporation.
