Sub: Timely submission of declaration forms in respect of employees joining insurable employment – regarding.

Sir/madam,

Hqrs. Office vide its office letter of even no. dated 29.09.09 has stated that henceforth no application for registration of workers with ESIC shall be entertained if such application is submitted by the employer after death of employee due to some accident at work place. The abovesaid instruction were modified with this office letter of even no. dated 23.12.2009 where it is clearly mentioned that Regional Director may accept declaration form submitted by an employer in respect of employees who has already sustained employment injury resulting in Death/Disablement of I.P. subject to the condition that the D.F. has been duly signed by deceased.

It has come to the notice of Hqrs. Office that some cases has been rejected on the basis of instruction dated 29.09.09. You are requested to review all such cases, which have been rejected on the basis of Hqrs. instruction dated 29.09.09 where the signature of deceased I.P. is there on Declaration Form in the light of instructions dated 23.12.2009 mentioned above.

This issues with the approval of Director General.

Yours faithfully,

(SATPAL SEHGAL) 714
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
