INDICATIVE EXPECTATIONS FROM SERVICE RECIPIENTS

SOME MISCELLENEOUS PROVISIONS

- Disqualification for benefits in certain cases:

A person who works and receives wages on any day is not entitled to sickness benefit (SB) or maternity benefit (MB) or temporary disablement benefit (TDB) in respect of that day.

A recipient of sickness benefit or temporary disablement benefit must remain under medical treatment and obey the instructions given by his Insurance Medical Officer. He should not leave the area of treatment without the permission of his medical officer and should present himself for examination by the medical officer or any other person authorized by the Corporation.

- Safeguarding the right to Benefit:

Cash benefits payable under the Employees' State Insurance Act are not liable to attachment or sale in execution of any court decree or order. Also, the right to receive any benefit is not transferable or assignable.

- Protection from Dismissal, discharge or other Punishments:

An employee is protected against dismissal, discharge, or other punishments during the following periods:—

- (1) a period of 6 months in case of a recipient of disablement benefit;
- (2) a period of 6 months in case an employee is under medical treatment for sickness or certified illness due to pregnancy or confinement;
- (3) a period of 12 months in case an employee is under medical treatment for T.B., Leprosy, Mental, Malignant or any of the 34 specified diseases.

- Adjudication Machinery:

To make the right of claimants effective, every claimant has a right of raising a dispute in the Employees' Insurance Court. It is headed by of a judicial officer appointed by the State Government. The jurisdiction of a Civil Court is barred in all such cases.

- Repayment and recovery of Benefit payments:

If a person receives any benefit to which he is not legally entitled, he is liable to repay the value of any such benefit to the Corporation.

- Punishment for false statement, etc.:

Any false statement or false representation made or caused to be made for the purpose of obtaining benefit wrongfully, etc. constitutes an offence under the Employees' State Insurance Act, punishable with imprisonment upto three months or with fine up to five hundred rupees or both.

FOR BETTER AND QUICKER SERVICES

Please Remember ---

- Pehchan Card is your visa to social security; protect it from loss or damage.
  - In case of loss of Pehchan Card, report the matter to your Branch Office/Dispensary.
  - Insurance Number of IPs is now portable across the country.
- If you are joining/switching over job and already registered with ESI Registration No. (Insurance No.), please inform the same to your new employer.
- Certain benefits are based on your length of contribution. Hence, registering yourself with existing ESIC Insurance No., on change of employment, will entitle you to such enhancement/contribution related benefits.
- Always carry your Pehchan Card and/or computer generated OPD Slip while visiting ESI Dispensary/Hospital. You will get the facilities faster with these. Your previous medical history can be easily seen.
  - Apply for examination by Medical Board immediately after your TDB terminates.
  - Follow referral procedures for treatment except in emergencies.
- If you have a grievance, contact Branch Office Manager/Dispensary in charge to which you are attached for quick redressal. Besides this, the concept of Suvidha Samagam on a fixed day of each month has also been introduced across all the offices of ESIC.
  - Be courteous with ESI staff and expect courtesy and co-operation from them always.

FOR HELPING US TO HELP YOU

Please....

- Do not add any non-eligible person in your family particulars for purpose of medical facility, etc.
- Do not deface or tamper with your Pehchan Card.
- Do not fake illness or injury for claiming any benefit.
- Do not lend your Pehchan Card to anyone else.
- Do not force your doctor for wrong certification, etc.
- Do not approach touts for any favour from ESIC.
- Do not pay for any ESIC Forms. These are supplied free of cost from Branch Offices.
- Do not forget to add/delete a family member in your declaration in the event of birth/death.
- Do not forget to carry Form 105 duly signed by your employer on outstation journeys.

This will enable you to avail ESI facilities anywhere.

ESIC IS YOUR TRUSTEE –TRUST IT ALL THE TIME

SOME POINTS TO REMEMBER

- Follow the instructions of your doctor carefully.
- Do continue the medical treatment as prescribed by your doctor.
- Do not fail to appear before the Medical Referee at the appointed time and date.
- Obtain a medical certificate only if you are unable to attend to your work.
- Fill in particulars and dates on your Forms correctly and make no wrong declaration on your claim for purpose of obtaining ESIC benefits.
- If you have any doubt or need a clarification, contact your Branch Office Manager or Dispensary in charge.

ADVANTAGES TO EMPLOYERS

Employers who come under the purview of the ESI Act, 1948, derive the following benefits under the Scheme:-

- Employers are absolved of all their liabilities of providing medical facilities to employees and their Dependents in kind or in the form of fixed cash allowance, reimbursement or actual expenses, lump sum grant or opting for any other medical insurance policy of limited scope, unless it is a contractual obligation of the employer.
- Employers are exempted from the applicability of the :
  - Maternity Benefit Act.
  - Employees' Compensation Act, in respect of employees covered under the ESI Scheme.
- Employers have, at their disposal, a productive, well secured workforce - an essential ingredient for better productivity.
- Employers are absolved of any responsibility in times of physical distress of workers such as sickness, employment injury or physical disablement resulting in loss of wages, as the responsibility of paying cash benefits shifts to the Corporation in respect of insured employees.
- Any sum paid by way of contribution under the ESI Act is deducted in computing 'income' under the Income Tax Act.
- Incentive to employers in the Pvt. Sector providing employment to the persons with disability:

The Incentive Scheme for employers in private sector for providing employment to persons with disabilities has come into force w.e.f. 1.4.2008. through Ministry of Labour and employment Gazette Notification No. S-38025/2/2008-SS.I dated 31-03-20087 published in the Gazette of India extraordinary part II, Section 3 Sub Section (1). Persons with disabilities employed on or after 1.4.2008 and drawing monthly wages upto Rs.25,000/- are covered under the scheme and Employer's share of contribution is paid by the Government for three years.

Now the said scheme has been revised by the Department of Persons with Disability (DEPwD) The salient features of the scheme are as under:-

- (i) Period of three years has been enhanced to 10 years.
- (ii) The wage criteria of Rs.25,000/- p.m. has been removed and now the scheme will be applicable to all persons with disabilities employed in the private sector irrespective of any wage ceiling.

ROLE OF EMPLOYERS

- Get your factory/establishment registered immediately after the ESI Act becomes applicable. Employers are advised to register for coverage only through the ESIC web portal - 'www.esic.in'. and use Employers' code No. in all ESIC Forms/documents and correspondences with various offices of the ESIC.
- Employer's are advised to register their employees within 10 days with complete details/family particulars.
- In case of Labour/Manpower supplying agencies, challan of advance contribution for six months should be generated by the employers through the ESIC web portal, deposited in the bank.
- Pay ESI contributions (Employers' share @ 4.75% of the wages and employees' share @ 1.75% of the wages) within 15 days of the following month, in which the wages fall due.
- The employee Insurance Number, once given, is valid for the lifetime of an employee. He need not register himself again if he changes location or employment. The Insurance Number is a unique number, valid throughout the country.
- Employer must ensure that the employee does not have any previous Insurance Number before registering him as a new Insured Person. This is for the benefit of the employee.
- In case the employee has already contributed in a particular Insurance Number, the same number should be continued.
- Use of same Insurance Number will help to safeguard the medical history of the Insured Person for reference and referral.
- The employers themselves have been authorized to upload personal particulars of employees, including family members of such employees. Hence, change of name cannot be executed.

- Deletion of contribution once uploaded and challan once generated are not allowed.
- Employers should upload/update their particulars viz e-mail ID, Mobile Number & PIN Code of the area to the ESIC web portal 'www.esic.in'.
- Submit an 'Accident Report' to the Branch Office (BO)/ESI Dispensary concerned immediately in respect of accidents that could result in death or disablement of the employee within 24 hours of its occurrence. Minor accidents which do not cause absence from work need not be reported.
- Grant leave to insured employees on the basis of sickness certificates issued by any authorized ESI doctor.
- Ensure that Return of Contribution is generated in time by making regular payments.
- Furnish any requisite information promptly as and when asked for by the RO/SRO/BO/any other office of the Corporation/Scheme.
- Facilitate proper inspection of factory/establishment by any authorized officer of the Corporation and produce before him all relevant records on demand.
- Intimate the date of closure or shifting (temporary or permanent) of the factory/ establishment to the RO/SRO/BO within seven days of its closure or shifting.
- Promptly report any change in the business activity, ownership of the concern or its management.
- Ascertain the liability towards ESI dues, while taking over the ownership of any factory/ establishment by purchase, gift, lease or licence, merger or in any other manner whatsoever as new owner is liable to discharge the past liabilities, if any.
- Maintain proper sanitation for a hygienic and healthy environment within the workplace and in residential quarters allotted to the insured persons.

WHAT TO DO WHEN (BY EMPLOYERS')

To ensure smooth flow of ESI Benefits to Insured Employees

- Online registration of employees may be done correctly and promptly on appointment, with all relevant information.
- Print out of Temporary Identification Certificate may be given to employees so that they can avail of ESI benefit.
- In order to facilitate a newly Insured Person to avail medical benefit under the Scheme in absence of an identity certificate/identity card, a 'Certificate of Employment' may be issued to the Insured Person in Form-86. This certificate, issued by the employer, remains valid for 3 months but can be revalidated for a further period not exceeding 3 months.
- Whenever events, such as, marriage, birth or death entails any additions or deletions in the family particulars of an Insured Person, the requisite information may be uploaded in the ESIC web portal.
- On re-entry of a person into insurable employment or, where an Insured Person had been dis-entitled to medical benefit due to non-generation of Return of Contribution, the employer may issue a 'Certificate of re-employment' or 'continuing employment' to such person in Form ESIC-37. This certificate will enable the Insured Person to avail of medical benefit from the date of its issuance.
- If an insured employee needs a change of dispensary due to any valid reasons, the employer may change the dispensary from the drop down list in the ESIC web portal.
- Whenever an Insured Person goes out of station on duty or leave, he may be issued a certificate in Form ESIC 105. This will enable him and his family to avail of medical treatment in ESI Dispensaries/hospitals elsewhere, if available at such outstation locations.
- Employers may assist or guide individual employees, for claiming any lawful benefit under the ESI Scheme, and also educate them properly about their rights and responsibilities under the Scheme.
- The usefulness of the ESI Scheme in the face of an untoward event resulting in loss of wages or earning capacity could be explained to the employees.
- For clarification of any doubt vis-à-vis your rights and responsibilities under the ESI Act, it is advisable to get in touch with a ESIC official rather than depend on advice from self-proclaimed consultants or any other unauthorized persons.

RIGHTS OF EMPLOYERS

- To be represented on ESI Corporation, Medical Benefit Council and other important committees of the Corporation that may be formed from time to time.
- To be supplied requisite Forms as may be required for fulfilling any obligation under the ESI Act.
- To recover employees share of contribution on the spot from the wages of insured person.
- To appeal to appellate authority of the ESI Corporation in case of dispute on the claim.
- To appeal to Employees' Insurance Court if not satisfied with the findings of Appellate Authority.
- Right to seek exemption from the applicability of the Scheme in case benefits provided by the management are similar or superior to those available under the ESI Scheme.
- Right of access to all essential information concerning the applicability of the Act, benefits, contribution, inspections and other procedures.

ROLE OF ESIC IN SERVING EMPLOYERS

- To develop a responsive, purposive and productive relationship with employers.
- Seek their active involvement in the improvement of the ESI Scheme.
- Provide them necessary guidance in fulfilling their lawful obligation under the ESI Act.
- Make available to them requisite Forms and Proforma as may be required by them from time to time.
- To ensure that any lax medical certification by IMOs/Panel Doctors does not bring down the productivity of a factory or establishment.
- To ensure that in case of any difficulty, doubt or misunderstanding, employer is given a chance to be heard at an appropriate level.
- To ensure that all correspondence emanating from the employer is responded to timely and objectively.
- To ensure that an employer is not being harassed by any official of the Corporation authorized to inspect the premises or the records of the employer.
- To ensure that any grievances received from employers are looked into promptly for speedy redressal.
