PRESS RELEASE

Launch of Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan by Shri Narendra Singh Tomar, Hon'ble Minister of Labour & Employment, Steel & Mines, Government of India

Shri Narendra Singh Tomar, Hon'ble Minister of Labour & Employment, Steel & Mines, Government of India initiated the Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan along with officers and workers of ESIC, by wielding the broom himself, to clean the premises of ESIC hospital, Rohini. on 29th September, 2014.

With a mission to make the entire country clean, our Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi ji has decided to launch a mass movement called the 'Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan' on 2nd of October, 2014 the momentous day on which Mahatma Gandhi was born. The Mahatma, once greatly said that it doesn't require money to become neat, clean and graceful.

While addressing the gathering, the Hon'ble Minister pointed out that with the rapid pace of urbanization; filth is increasing at an equal speed. The dream of Mahatma Gandhi was to build an India that along with providing education & employment becomes a clean nation too. But even after 66 years of independence, we haven't been able to realize his humble dream. Under the leadership of Shri Narendra Modi, our new government has reaffirmed Mahatma Gandhi's vision of a clean India.

The Hon'ble Minister also requested all officials and workers of ESIC to join the Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan with full vigour, and gather forces together to keep our respective homes, offices, cities, villages and surrounding areas clean, thus doing our bit towards making a cleaner India. He insisted that cleanliness should be a regular habit. Along with this, he also requested the doctors to give the best treatment to their patients, as well as maintain cleanliness in the hospital and their homes.

During the launch of Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan, Shri S.K.G. Rahate, Financial Commissioner, ESIC, Shri R.S.Chauhan, Medical Commissioner, ESIC, Dr. Anshu Chhabra, Medical Superintendent, ESIC Hospital, Rohini, Dr. Dharendra Srivastava, Dean, ESIC Dental College, Rohini, Shri Pranay Sinha, Joint Director In-charge, ESIC Sub-Regional Office, Rohini and Shri Ratnesh Kumar Gautam, Joint Director, Public Relations, ESIC Headquarters were also present.
